100+ Women Who Care, a new organization of women who make quarterly donations to not-for-profit organizations in Monroe County, has announced its second donation of $12,300.

This donation of $100 from each of 123 women has been given to Volunteers in Medicine Clinic of Monroe County to forward its mission of providing medical, dental and mental health services for uninsured residents of Monroe and Owen counties.

The presentation was made at the Volunteers in Medicine clinic Feb. 17 by Ute Coyne, a 100+ Women Who Care representative and VIM volunteer nurse, to Nancy Richman, VIM executive director.

Present for the celebration were 100+ Women Who Care members, VIM employees and board members.

Membership in 100+ Women Who Care is open to all women who agree to donate to the selected local non-profits quarterly.

Contact Carol Maloney at carolamaloney@gmail.com for more information about 100+ Women Who Care.

The community-operated, community-owned and community-financed Volunteers in Medicine clinic is modeled after a national program with a history of success in other communities around the country.

The clinic, which opened in 2007, is located at 811 W. Second St., Bloomington.

For more information or to volunteer for the Volunteers in Medicine clinic, visit www.vimmonroecounty.org online or send an email to info@VIMMonroeCounty.org.

To make a donation to the clinic, contact the Bloomington Hospital Foundation at 353-5002.
