Volunteer receives 'Dollars for Doers' grant

H-T Report Jul 15, 2013

Shane Shaffer, a VIM volunteer, presents Nancy Richman, Executive Director, with a check for $500. This grant from Baxter International Foundation is part of the "Dollars for Doers" program

Shane Shaffer, a volunteer with Volunteers In Medicine, presents a check for $500 to Nancy Richman, executive director with Volunteers In Medicine.

The grant from Baxter International Foundation is part of the Dollars for Doers program that recognizes Baxter employees who give back to their local communities through volunteerism.

During the past four years, Shaffer has generously donated his time and energy volunteering in the VIM medication room. Shaffer is an employee of Baxter in Bloomington.

The community-operated, community-owned and community-financed Volunteers in Medicine clinic is modeled after a national program with a history of success in other communities around the country.

The VIM clinic, which opened in 2007, is located at 811 W. Second St. in Bloomington.

For more information or to volunteer for the Volunteers in Medicine clinic, go to www.vimmonroecounty.org or send an email to info@VIMMonroeCounty.org.

To make a donation to the Volunteers in Medicine clinic, contact the Bloomington Hospital Foundation at 353-5002.
