Girl Scouts donate Little Free Library

Special to the H-T Oct 31, 2015

Volunteers in Medicine is thrilled with the new addition to the clinic’s courtyard: a “Little Free Library” donated by Girl Scout Troop 3120.

Childs Elementary School hosted a Literary Run in the spring and books from the run were donated for the VIM’s library.

Featuring children’s books, the girls of Troop 3120 painted the library, signed their names within art bubbles, delivered it to the clinic and loaded it with books.

The clinic appreciates the troop’s sentiment of “giving back” to their community.

Located at 811 W. Second St., the community-operated, community-owned and community-financed Volunteers in Medicine free clinic is modeled after a national program with a history of success in other communities around the country.
